

I Still Do - A Celebration of African-American Weddings

Photographer, Kea Taylor, takes us on a heartwarming journey as she shares her most beloved images from ten years of photographing African-American weddings. Taylor artfully balances her romantic images with interviews of couples from diverse backgrounds, who openly share the struggles and challenges of maintaining a successful marriage in the new millennium. Through beautiful images and inspiring words from couples in their own voices, I Still Do; inspires, transcends and demonstrates undoubtedly that Black love is alive and thriving despite seemingly insurmountable odds. (Also features a glossary of African-American wedding traditions).
