Burke, the learned author of the Hibernia Dtmnicana, in speaking of the religious foundations in the county of Hoscommon, thus refers to it:-- The noble family of Don-ell is lineally descended from Heremou. The present head is Lucas Mac Dowell, esq. a gentleman of opulence, and an honor to the Catholic religion, which he professes. The same right reverend author further informs us, that amongst the distinguished members of this family was Felix Mac Dowf.ll, who, having finished his studies at Valadolid, taught philosophy in Sardinia and Paris, and subsequently theology at Rome. He died in prison in Dublin, anno 1709. Hib. Dnm. page 586. Ensign Lewis Mac
