

Amish Knitting Circle Christmas: Granny & Jeps Love Story

Granny Weaver started a knitting circle believing women are stronger spun together, just like her wool. But she was young once with her own struggles. In 1963 Deborah Byler is twenty-one and has turned down seven marriage proposals from hopeful suitors in Millersburg, Ohio. At her parents request, she goes to live with relatives in the new Amish settlement in Smicksburg, Pennsylvania, praying she will find a match. Jeb Weaver lives in a strict Swartzentruber Amish settlement, and he can no longer abide under the rules of the Ordnung. His older brother left the family farm and settled in Smicksburg, and convinces Jeb to do the same. When Jeb meets Deborah, he finds her too liberal and outspoken. Deborah thinks Jeps judgmental and a complete stick in the mud. Their constant clashing makes sparks fly. Will an African American man, who hitchhikes around the country to attend Martin Luther King Jr. marches, help Jeb and Deborah see their own prejudices? Karen Anna Vogel again bring us another heart warming Granny & Jeb story. A love that surrounds all those who read it. Pamela Jarrell ~ Whoopie Pie Book Club
