

Science Fair Bunnies

From Kathryn Lasky and Marilyn Hafner, creators of LUNCH BUNNIES and SHOW AND TELL BUNNIES, another appealing story about negotiating the complex rituals of elementary school. Oh, no! The Science Fair is next week and Clyde's project, a row of wilted bean plants, is a goner. His older brother says he is in big trouble, and Clyde agrees, ... until his loose tooth gives him an idea, a really great idea. The question is, will Rosemary, his friend and science partner, be willing to give up her very first loose tooth? More importantly, will the Tooth Fairy understand that they did it in the name of science? Kathryn Lasky and Marilyn Hafner, creators of LUNCH BUNNIES and SHOW AND TELL BUNNIES, tell another satisfying story about the anxieties and triumphs of life in first grade.
