

The Tale of Peter Rabbit

When Mrs. Rabbit begs her four furry children to stay away from Mr. McGregors garden, the impish Peter Rabbit naturally takes this as an open invitation to create mischief. But when he is spotted by the farmer himself, the chase is on! A century after it was first published, Beatrix Potters beloved tale of a certain naughty bunny with a taste for radishes continues to enchant readers. Using Potters original text, popular illustrator Michael Hague has made Peters world bigger and brighter than ever, bringing this cherished tale to a new generation of youngsters, in a larger format that will delight mischievous bunnies young and old.
