

Our Ecuador Retirement...Part 2: The Second Year and Why We Didn't Stay

After enduring Don's second heart attack and the loss of job and health insurance, Don and Diane Murray lost it all. Moving to Ecuador was a bold move to build a new life based on a small retirement income. In his first best-selling book, Our Ecuador Retirement...The First 8 Months, Don tells the story of their lives leading up to the move and wonderfully describes their first 8 months living in a South American country they had never visited. In this most recent book, Don picks up where the first book ends, describing their second year in Ecuador and their eventual move to Mexico. This is an honest look at one couple's day-to-day lives living as expats on Ecuador's coast, minus any sugar coating. A must read for those considering a move to Ecuador...or maybe to any other offshore retirement destination.
