- * The Boys of Starbuck, who made the Worlds Largest Lefse on the shores of Lake Minnewashka.
- * Carl Knutson, who wrote lefse songs while selling lefse out of the back of his 47 Chevy.
- * Bitten and Torbjorn Norvoll, who related stories of how lefse helped feed people in occupied Norway during World War II.
- * Anna Alden, who make lefse on roller skates.
- * Grocer Merlin Hoiness, lefse bootlegger.

For the love of lefse, you owe it to yourself and your family to make this book a well-worn addition to your library. Learn to make lefse and pass on the heritage, history and humor of the people who continue this fine-and-flavorful tradition. The author--concerned that lefse-making was a dying out--traveled to small towns in the Midwest in search of the best lefse makers. As they made lefse, he studied their techniques, copied their recipes, sampled their lefse and coffee, noted their lefse-inspired stories and humor--and put all of it in this heartwarming book. Lefse is a festive food that in the dead of winter brings to life a warm, loving heritage and inspires wink-wink humor and even some verse. Never alone and seldom sad, The life of a lefse maker isnt so bad.
