

Holding Yawulyu: White Culture and Black Womens Law

For two years, Zohl de Ishtar lived in a one-room tin shed with the women Elders of Balgo. As their Culture Woman, Zohl assisted the Elders in establishing and coordinating the Kapululangu Womens Law and Culture Centre. Holding Yawulyu: White Culture and Black Womens Law tells the amazing story of Zohls journey as it documents White cultures impact on Indigenous Womens Law. Seventeen years later, Zohl remains at Balgo and provides a new Preface to this edition. Holding Yawulyu is an investigation into the inter-cultural relationship of White and Indigenous societies through successive waves of missionary, bureaucratic and art industry influence. She documents the incredible resilience of the Kapululangu Elders throughout this period, as they strove to pass their Yawulyu (Womens Law) on to future generations. Deeply moving, Holding Yawulyu is an historical account of Balgo (Wirrimanu), a profound insight into White cultures impact on Indigenous Womens Law and a touching personal story of courage and resilience in the face of adversity. It presents an insightful analysis of competing interests that makes Indigenous and White interactions complex, often painful, and fraught with problems.
