

Into the Wild (French Edition)

Toujours plus loin. Toujours plus seul. Inspiré par ses lectures de Tolstoï et de Thoreau, Christopher McCandless a tout sacrifié à son idéal de pureté et de nature. Après deux années derrance sur les routes du Sud et de l'Ouest américain, il rencontre son destin (à vingt-quatre ans) au cœur des forêts de l'Alaska. Un parcours telle une étoile filante dans la nuit froide du Grand Nord. C'est un voyage à travers une Amérique très petite et très grande, à travers des paysages aussi beaux que les avait rêvés un jeune homme qui prit juste le temps de les atteindre. C'est un voyage absurde et exaltant, qui commence par un geste de folle liberté et sacheve par une mort de haute solitude. Bref, c'est une histoire. Et elle a le mérite et la tristesse d'être vraie. Daniele Heymann, Marianne Traduit de l'anglais (Etats-Unis) Par Christian Molinier
