

Rosabeth M. Kanter (Critical Evaluations in Business and Management)

Rosabeth Moss Kanter (b. 1943) described by The Economist as one of the few women in recent years to have achieved genuine guru status introduced the concept of empowerment into management thought. She is the subject of this new collection from Routledge's acclaimed Critical Evaluations in Business and Management series. It brings together in two volumes the best critical assessments of her work. The collection is supplemented with the editors' expert introduction which places the gathered materials in their historical and intellectual context.
