

Protecting It All (The Passion Series Book 4)

Jake Davenport is still on the loose, and Lukus Mitchell and Markus Lambert have had enough. They won't rest until the sadistic Dom who is threatening their women is behind bars... or dead. They don't care which. Lukus assembles a team of his top security personnel and heads to California, leaving Markus and Tiffany's cop brother, Aiden, in Chicago to keep Tiffany and Brianna safe; locked down in the loft at The Punishment Pit. Derek's brother Dylan is already in California, staking out the predator, feeling helpless as he watches Jake lure innocent women into his nest of consensual, but brutal, sexual websites. When Jake turns his eye to Hannah Martine, Dylan decides he's done with just watching. Hannah moved across the country trying to escape the demons of her past, but the fresh start she's hoping for is cut short when Jake presses her to accept a tempting job that will solve her financial woes. Once he gets her alone, the sadist uses humiliation, drugs, and brutal force to try to bend Hannah to his will. Everything comes to a head when Lukus and the gang realize that only someone on the inside can get close enough to collect evidence of the illegal activities needed to put Davenport away. Dylan is furious they are even considering sending Hannah, the innocent woman he has strong feelings for, anywhere near the monster trying to break her. Will Hannah have the strength to walk back into the demon's lair? And even if she does, will the threat against Brianna and Tiffany be dissolved? Jake is obsessed with the women from his past, and as authorities close in, he will become more desperate for his revenge against Lukus and Markus. This is Book 4 of Livia Grant's sexy Passion series: a roller-coaster of suspense, emotion, heartfelt love, and darkest desires.
