

The British Equine Industry

The concept of an equine industry is one that has only emerged in recent years. This is despite the fact that horses have always been, and continue to be, significant sources of economic activity, especially in rural areas. This book collates information from a diverse range of sources. It shows how a huge but disorganised cottage industry forms an important sector of British industry, both in terms of capital invested and human resources employed. Each chapter will look at a different section of the equine industry, from racing through to pony clubs and riding establishments. Information is also provided on the goods sector such as farriers, saddlers, stable equipment etc and also a section on veterinary services. This book will be invaluable for anyone working in the horse world who needs to understand all the different components sectors of the horse community and how they fit together.

Industry Links - The British Horseracing Authority Mar 8, 2017 Wide ranging topics from Brexit and biosecurity to racehorse health and equine therapy were discussed at Britains National Equine Forum in British Equestrian Trade Association - Industry Information The most recent and thorough research into the equestrian industry is the National Equestrian Survey 2015, conducted by the British Equestrian Trade British Horse Industry Confederation 114. 5.2.2 The British Horse Industry Confederation and the. Strategy for the Horse Industry in England and Wales. 122. 5.3 Government funding within the horse UK size and scope of equine industry The British Equestrian Federation (BEF) is the National Governing Body for horse the equestrian industry and together with the British Horse Racing Authority British Equestrian Trade Association - Market Information The British Horse Industry Confederation is a representative umbrella organisation for both professional and amateur involvement in equestrian activities in Equestrian Statistics - British Horse Society The British equine industry is a very large and fragmented entity. The number and variety of interested parties means that it is very difficult to gather accurate Memorandum submitted by the British Horse Industry Confederation Statistics available on the wider equestrian industry, UK equine population and participation in equestrianism in the UK. Strategy for the Horse Industry in England and Wales Strategy for the Horse Industry in England and Wales. Prepared by the British Horse Industry Confederation in partnership with the Department for Environment, Equine - Lantra The horse industry, also called the equine industry, is a term used primarily in the United States References[edit]. Jump up ^ British Equestrian Trade Association - Market Information. . Jump up The British Horse Industry Confederation, launched today (March 3, 1999) brings together racing and the other horse sports and recreational activities. Make Brexit an Opportunity, British Equine Industry Says TheHorse The equine industry includes anything and everything to do with horses, ponies The British Horse Society (BHS) The Society has more than 77,000 Horse industry - Equiculture The British Horse Societys advice to all young people is that GCSEs and A-Levels or their equivalents are just as important in this industry as they are in any Equine industry statistics - Horse & Hound The strategic initiative has been launched by The British Horse Industry British horse industry, a succinct definition of the industry had not been established. The British Equine Industry Ebook Mar 29, 2011 The Strategy has been developed by the British Horse Industry Confederation (BHIC) in partnership with Government, and sets out a vision of British Equestrian Federation - National Federation Detail Equine Sector 2015 General Election. Manifesto for the Horse. The equine industry in the UK is both vibrant and valuable, contributing ?7bn a year to the Strategy for the horse industry in England and Wales - British Horse Industry Confederation Limited (Limited by Guarantee) The equestrian industry is diverse and gathering accurate information has been About the BEF - British Equestrian Federation Mar 7, 2017 The hot topics of Brexits impact on the horse industry and the threat of inflated business rates were among many subjects debated by a Equestrians urged to embrace change in British horse industry Here are some statistics relating to the British horse industry which show that British breeders have a broad and diverse marketplace. Perhaps British Horse Industry Confederation - Wikiwand Survey Reveals New Spending Patterns in Equestrian Industry. The British Equestrian Trade Associations 2011 National Equestrian Survey has highlighted British Equestrian Trade Association - Survey Reveals New The British Equine Industry. Document about The British Equine Industry is available on print and digital edition. This pdf ebook is one of digital edition of The Equine Careers - British Horse Society Established in 1972 it is the largest representative body within the equestrian industry and together with the British Horse Racing Board and the Thoroughbred The organisational landscape of the English horse industry: a Oct 29, 2008 The BHIC was launched on 3 March 1999 to enable the British horse industry to speak to government with a single voice. The BHIC comprises Horse industry - Wikipedia BETA has the reputation of being the source of accurate, reliable and current information on the horse world and the equine industry in Great Britain. Much of the British Horse Industry Confederation - Wikipedia The fact that we now describe the economic activity surrounding the horse as an industry shows the progress we have made over the last 10 years, as well as BEF - Equine Research - British Equestrian Federation The equine industry includes anything and everything to do with horses, ponies in the UK Over half of equine businesses employ less than 5 members of staff Equine Sector Manifesto 2015 - British Equestrian Federation The British Horse Industry Confederation (BHIC) was launched on 3 March 1999 to enable the British Horse industry to speak to government with a single, A report of research on the horse industry in Great Britain A registered charity that provides practical grounding for people in the British horseracing, thoroughbred breeding, equine and farriery industries. It also delivers