

Pimp my Dad

Der alleinerziehende Vater Christopher will beruflich noch einmal richtig durchstarten - doch aus den ehrgeizigen Planen wird nichts. Am Ende steht er ganz ohne Job da und lässt sich hängen. Aufmunterungsversuche seiner siebzehnjährigen Tochter Sophia schlagen fehl, bis sie zusammen mit Freunden ein Schulprojekt namens Pimp My Dad entwickelt. Fortan ist Christopher der Hauptdarsteller eines Blogs, durch den Sophia ihrem etwas aus der Form geratenen Papa Beine machen will. Einziger Haken an der Sache: Sie erzählt ihm nichts davon. Die daraus entstehenden Heimlichkeiten sind aber bloß für einen Teil des Gefühlschaos verantwortlich, in dem Sophia steckt - viel stärker irritiert sie das Verhalten des hinreißenden amerikanischen Austauschschülers Jacob... Kirsten Wendt und Marcus Hunnebeck erzählen in ihrem zweiten gemeinsamen Liebesroman eine Vater-Tochter-Geschichte, die beweist, dass man vor den Wirrungen der Liebe in keinem Alter geschützt ist.
