

The Book of Lokk: Genocide (Volume 3)

This is a story of Gods and mortals, of life and death, of a world where fate has no master. This is the Book of Lokk.

----- Lokk has escaped the Sons of Stone, but landed in the grasp of the Iron Edge, a ruthless military order almost surgical in its efficiency and ingenuity. Who is this man Ajak, the Commander of the Iron Edgethat seemingly strides with gods? And what of Fidus, or of the twin girls that he and Lokk rescued from the Kuklopse and carried through the pit outside of Theas? In a novel that spans eras thousands of years apart, only one thing guides the minds of men. That thing is Death.
