

The Boy Who Drew Cats and Other Japanese Fairy Tales (Dover Childrens Thrift Classics)

A talking tea kettle, a monstrous goblin-spider that lives in a haunted temple, miniature soldiers that plague a lazy young bride, and other fanciful creatures abound in this captivating collection of eleven Japanese fairy tales. Youngsters are transported to an exotic, faraway world of samurai warriors, rice fields, humble cottages, and a magical spring in five tales excellently translated and adapted by noted writer and linguist Lafcadio Hearn: The Fountain of Youth, Chin-Chin Kobakama, The Goblin-Spider, The Old Woman Who Lost Her Dumplings, and the title story. Six additional stories in versions by Grace James, Basil Hall Chamberlain, and other authorities on Japanese folklore include The Tea-Kettle, The Wooden Bowl, My Lord Bag-o-Rice, The Hare of Inaba, The Silly Jelly-Fish, and The Matsuyama Mirror.
