Evans thrusts her signature character Farideh into a maelstrom of devilish politics and magical intrigue that will have far-reaching implications for the future of the Forgotten Realms. As the chaos of the Sundering rages around her, young warlock Farideh faces a more personal turmoil wrought by a deal she made with a devil years ago. Hoping to protect her twin sister, she leaves everything she holds dear to assist a wizard in a scheme that pits the devils of the Nine Hells against the gods above. But when Farideh casts the spell to enter the wizards remote mountaintop fortress, she picks up a stowaway Harper agent named Dahl who isnt so inclined to follow devilish demands. Dahl attempts to escape only to run into a village of odd people, lurking behind an impenetrable wall. Forced to gaze into the villagers souls, Farideh points out the ones who seem different, only to watch as the wizards guard carts them off to fates unknown. Are these villagers or prisoners? Are they blessed or doomed by the gods? As the wizards guessing game proves more and more diabolical, Farideh resolves to unravel his secretseven if it means shell lose her own soul to the Nine Hells. From the Hardcover edition.
