

The Discovery of Hypnosis: The Complete Writings of James Braid, the Father of Hypnotherapy

The first complete edition of the writings of James Braid, the man who coined the term hypnotism and founded hypnotherapy. Also includes Braids lost manuscript, written just before his death, in which he reviews his lifes work for the French Academy of Sciences. Excerpts from the writings of his most devoted follower, Dr. John Milne Bramwell, are also included, which describe Braids life and work. The current editor provides detailed prefatory essays and commentary for the modern reader.
