

Why Kings And Queens Dont Wear Crowns

Why Kings and Queens Dont Wear Crowns is a fairytale written by Princess Martha Louise of Norway and released as a childrens book in the US in 2005. The original version was released as a picture book in Norway in 2004. The story is about her grandfather, King Olav V, when he first came from Denmark to Norway. It tells about how difficult it was to wear crowns while cross country skiing amongst other typical Norwegian winter activities. The illustrations in the book are made by the Norwegian artist Svein Nyhus.
